If you can linger longer, here are a few of the year’s events.

Howard helping commercial and residential accounts to save money on electricity using Cirro Energy, Direct Energy and Glacial Energy, doing legal research online, following friends’ activities on Facebook, watching governmental missteps reported on FOX News; coping with the increasing chal-

Herb's family hosted Christmas 2012 in Sterling, Kansas. Front: Zeke and Daniel Albertson, Jacob Kazmaier; middle: Abi Albertson, Howard and Sharron, Jacob Kazmaier; back: Herb, Zach, Jenny, Celeste and Ben Albertson, Lacie, Shirlene and Jeff Kazmaier. We missed Shari’s family in North Carolina and Heather in Dubai.

lenges of Type 2 diabetes and wound care appointments, celebrating better vision after cataract removal, going with Sharron to Kansas to be with Herb and Shirlene’s families for Christmas 2012 (see photo above) and later for Abi and Celeste’s graduations from twelfth and eighth grades; updating <http://LifeChain.net> and helping publish another GCRW directory with information that Sharron collected

Grandma, Grandpa and Abi Albertson celebrated Christmas 2012 in Sterling, Kansas with snow.

Grandpa with Jacob and Andy Kazmaier in Olathe, Kansas were getting ready for Grandparents’ Day at Whitefield Academy in Kansas City, Missouri (www.whitefieldacademy.org) in Kansas City, Missouri.

Howard and Sharron visited Lacie Kazmaier's room as well as Andy and Jacob’s during Grandparents’ Day at Whitefield Academy.

Sharron making hundreds of calls for GCRW as chairman of directory and ways and means committees, topping previous years' collections from sponsors; recruiting volunteers for several friends' successful election campaigns, receiving volunteer awards with most volunteer hours in the state; finding more than a hundred alumni before Pasadena Academy reunion and putting together their stories in an online "notebook;" celebrating hundreds of books read by children and pre-teens as librarian at Richardson Church of the Nazarene; visiting with 150 Texas Life Chain coordinators as state director and with many of the coordinators in more than 1550 cities across the U.S. and Canada as coordinator of <http://Life-Chain.net> for the 26th annual peaceful pro-life, prayer event on the first Sunday of October, sending late-night reports to Howard for the website and to Royce Dunn who is the national director of Life Chain; pleased that Kitty and Chihuahua Puppy are tolerating each other Sharron and County Commissioner Chris Hill celebrated his election at his swearing in ceremony, January 2, 2013 at Collin County Courthouse in McKinney, Texas.

Shirley Jean Schmidt, Sharron's sister, came from Oregon to go with Sharron to Pasadena Academy reunion in Pasadena, CA in May.

Sharron had a photo taken with U.S. Senator Ted Cruz in June (as did almost everyone else in Texas politics sometime during the year).

Heather came from Dubai for a visit to 14 states during the summer and went to Sharron's favorite restaurant with her in August.

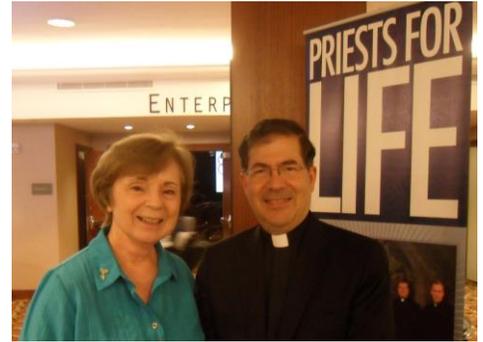

Golden Corridor Republican Women went to the state capitol in Austin at least four times to promote pro-life bills.

All those late nights volunteering for candidates and causes were recognized by Texas and National Federation of Republican Women as the most recorded volunteer hours. (See photo at right.)

Pastor Chris Galloway and Sharron congratulated children who read missions books to qualify for ice cream in April at Richardson Church of the Nazarene.

Sharron and Fr. Frank Pavone discussed the ecumenical National Life Chain that takes place in 1900 locations across the U.S. and Canada.

State Senator Ken Paxton enjoyed Texas Federation of Republican Women convention opening night with his wife, Angela, and others: Sharron, former mayor Corbett Howard, GCRW president-elect Piper McCraw and GCRW past president Candy Noble in San Antonio in October. Ken is our favorite candidate for Texas Attorney General.

Earhart siblings are proud of their baby brother Matthew who was born on September 30, 2013 in Ahoskie, NC. He gets lots of hugs and brings another smiling personality into the already busy home.

Herb managing the student accounts office as Bursar at Mid America Nazarene University, Olathe, Kansas, commuting to Sterling, Kansas to be with his family on weekends until their house sold and they all moved to Olathe, volunteering at events in Kansas City

Jenny homeschooling three teens and three youngsters, babysitting two others, handwriting for Sterling Services, having fun with her flourishing garden, packing to move, making new friends, volunteering and having date nights with Herb in Olathe

Abi (19) graduating from twelfth grade, helping Jenny babysit, attending high school camp and counseling at children's camp, working at a Christian Daycare in Olathe

Ben (17 ½) in twelfth grade, creating meals and snow sculptures (see chess game above and www.hutchnews.com/assets/9242888/snowcreationSnoopy.jpg), playing basketball, working at a coffee shop in Sterling, competing in teen Bible quizzing with Celeste in Hutchison and Olathe

Celeste (14) in ninth grade, with Ben on a winning teen quiz team; helping plan meals, advancing on the piano, enjoying time with best friends before moving, babysitting weekly for an Olathe family

Daniel (11 ½) in sixth grade, participating in World Quiz at General Assembly, playing baseball, glad to have boys in the neighborhood to play with, happy to be in the youth group now

Ezekiel (7½) having fun in home-school second grade doing third grade work, participating in World Quiz at General Assembly, playing summer league pitching machine baseball

Zachary (3 ½) a bundle of animated energy, wanting to “do school” like his siblings and be ten on his next birthday, enjoying Legos with his brothers

All of them portraying a walking nativity for Christmas 2012; working at district children's camp while Daniel and Zeke were campers; going to Church of the Nazarene General Assembly to see long lost friends

Shari homeschooling her second and first graders, reaching into her mental cobwebs to help Eric with his college math course, getting ready for Earhart Baby #6 who came on September 30

Eric staying busy with projects at church, on schedule to finish his degree in Leadership Studies at Regent University in May 2014, making fuel for his diesel truck from recycled motor oil in his "spare" time

Michael (4 ½) reveling in time with Dad fixing up the four-wheelers and learning to drive a "little" faster, asking often if he can "do school," marching through the house with Miles as his police sidekick

Mitch (7 ½) enjoying all things LEGO including Star Wars and Lord of the Rings, camping out with Royal Ranger boys from church, daily emptying the dishwasher and teaching Miles how to do it

Mandi (6) smiling broadly while driving a four-wheeler around the yard, enjoying crafts (and snacks!) each Wednesday night at MPact Girls, taking ballet lessons with Missi

Missi (4 ½) learning to say "Yes, ma'am" in the preschool class at homeschool coop, jumping on the trampoline (and the couch), pushing her babies in the stroller while shepherding Miles through the house

Miles (almost 3) taking unauthorized excursions to the neighbors, trekking in the woods with the big kids, learning how to color and then practicing on flat surfaces throughout the house

Matthew (2 months) arriving on Grandma Albertson's birthday, enjoying attention and hugs from all five of his siblings, smiling and giggling when anyone talks to him

All of them glad for a visit from Grandma Albertson in November to help with the six-ring circus and the laundry

Shirlene helping with Lacie's and Andy's choirs at Olathe College Church of the Nazarene, enjoying ladies' Bible study, counseling for Lacie's group at church camp, driving two hours each school day to take the kids to Whitefield Academy in Kansas City, Missouri, going on field trips and volunteering with PTF

Jeff keeping busy on several projects in his architectural firm, serving on the church Sunday School Ministries Board, counseling for Andy's group at church camp, taking his family to Church of the Nazarene General Assembly in Indianapolis, IN for the kids to be in the World Quiz and sight-see in Chicago afterward at the Willis/Sears Tower "glass ledge building"; both of them teaching Andy's Sunday School class

Lacie (12) in sixth grade doing well at a classical Christian school as are Andy and Jacob, enjoying art class, in church and school choir, Bible quizzing, Upward soccer, basketball, piano and swimming lessons

"Does anyone want to join us for a camel ride?"

Andy (9) in third grade, playing Upward flag-football, basketball and soccer, in kids' church choir, quizzing, piano and swimming lessons, helping Jeff with yard work

All of them enjoying their playful English Golden Retriever puppy

Jacob (6 1/2) in first grade learning to read, in quizzing, playing Upward sports and building Legos with Andy, taking swimming lessons

Heather brought fun ideas from Dubai.

Heather in her sixth year of teaching social studies at American Academy in Al-Mizhar, Dubai as pastoral team leader
