You may find all of us on facebook. We enjoy your friendship. You are in our prayers because we know you have had successes and challenges this year, too. We'll be glad to hear from you. “The Lord bless you and keep you . . . and give you peace.” (Numbers 6:24-26)

The Albertsons

Howard watched FOX News and did research on his computer until May 23 when his Type 2 diabetes caught up with him and he fell a few times. Since then, he has been in a skilled nursing facility where he enjoys the meals and sleeps most of the day until Sharron comes to get him up for exercise in his wheel chair around the building. Most nights they play dominoes and sometimes go for a ride to Wendy's for a frosty. He was glad when Shari and Shirlene brought five of our fifteen grandchildren to celebrate his birthday shown in photo below.

Sharron continues to make hundreds of calls for Golden Corridor Republican Women as chair of directory and ways and means committees, again topping previous years' collections from patrons; recruiting help and then rejoicing with friends who won their elections. She passes out books as children and pre-teen librarian at Richardson Church of the Nazarene on the Sundays she is not attending the service at annual peaceful, pro-life, prayer event on the first Sunday of October. She gives our Chihuahua “Puppy” the individual attention he craves with time on her lap and walks through the neighborhood.

Heather Albertson (above at left with Shirlene, Sharron and Shari) taught sixth-grade in Richardson, Texas, for a year while working on her masters degree. She is now teaching first grade at the American School of Ulaanbaatar in Mongolia. After being in hot climates previously for ten years (Mumbai and Dubai), her year in Canada may have helped prepare her for drastic changes of below freezing tures and heavy coats. She plans to spend winter break in Germany.
